By the Lords Justices General and General Governours of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armagh. R. West. C. Wm. Conolly.

WHereas His most Excellent Majesty hath thought fit to signify His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which at present stands prorogued to Thursday the Eleventh Day of August next, be further prorogued to the Twenty Third Day of March next; We do therefore hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to the Twenty Third Day of March next; Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Twenty Eighth Day of July, 1726.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Tickell,

GOD save the KING.

Dublin, Aug. 1. This being the Anniversary of His Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lords Justices met at the Castle and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction; and the Night concluded with Bonfires and the other usual Demonstrations of Joy.

Madrid, Aug. 5, N. S. Count Conigseck the Emperour's Ambassadour, is gone this Day to Balsain, where he will stay during their Catholick Majesties Residence at St. Ildefonso. The Marquess de Grimaldo is recovered of his late Indisposition, but it is not yet known when he will go to St. Ildefonso. On the 30th of last Month a Contract was made between the King of Spain's Treasurer and Don Cæsar Rubini, a Banker of this Town, for remitting 400,[illegible] toles to Vienna.
